Work Experience

---

Freelance Web Developer

www.upwork.com - United States

April 2021 to Present

Being one of freelancer at upwork, has taught me how to be client centric. Because being able to thrive at upwork and succeed depends on how happy and satisfied my clients and customers are, though the job hunt ain't easy, but I learnt to adapt and be successful

Web Developer

Topcoder

September 2020 to Present

With confidence in competitive programming at Topcoder, where time management is adhered to, I have proven to be time cautious and at costumers demand and projects target. As a freelancer at Topcoder I don't just manage time, but resources, attention to details and project ready, and the topcoder blood runs in me live the freelance lifestyle.

I have successfully created an AI voice recognition website, that takes voice inputs and respond in voice, with desired choice of questions, just like Microsoft cortana, and also a full stack social media application similar to linkedIn. All this while at topcoder practising daily challenges.
